ARCHIE'S CLUB NEWS presents:

Thanks to everyone who wrote me about "HOW YOU SPENT YOUR SUMMER VACATION." I really enjoyed reading your letters. Anyway, as promised, here are some winners. Congrats! -the Vicster

NEREA GIBSON
Wheaton, Maryland age 12

I spent most of my vacation working as a Junior counselor at my school's camp in Washington D.C. The kids had a lot of fun going on field trips and to Bay Ridge beach. The third week in August, my sister and I anxiously wondered where we were going on vacation because each year our parents plan a surprise trip. This year we went to Annapolis, Maryland. It was really fun. We walked by little shops and got shirts and other souvenirs and then went on a boat ride. That was my favorite part of the visit because the ocean looked clean and beautiful under the sun. Next we went to a terrace restaurant which I liked a lot because of the food. We went to the U.S. Naval Academy and left for home.

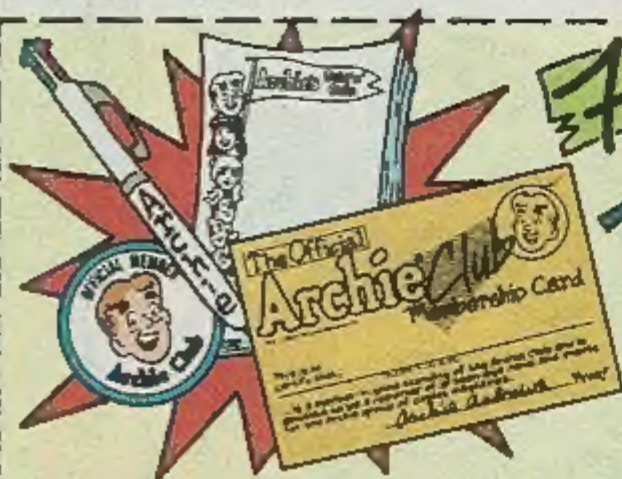

1ST PRIZE
$10.00

NORA LEAH LOWINSKY
New York, New York

On the first day of my vacation my cousins from Los Angeles came to visit. They were the most troublesome kids I have ever seen. It was a very loooooong two weeks. My parents sensed how stressed out I was, so they rented a cabin in the woods for one month to relax. It rained most of the time and I caught poison ivy on a nature walk! I never expected that I'd wish to go back to go to school during summer vacation!

2ND PRIZE
$5.00
